SUNDAY 3 NOVEMBER 2024 - ALL SAINTS

'The Communion of Saints'

During this year we have had a baptism and two confirmations. At each service we as a community of believers have stood to recite the Apostle's creed. It is an ancient creed that speaks to the core beliefs of Christianity. In that creed we reach the final stanza and say "I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints..." But what does it mean to believe in the communion of saints?

When people think of saints they might think of famous people who have been named an official saint, like St Paul, St Ignatius, or St Mary MacKillop. However long before this formal practice, the apostle's creed spoke of the saints as all believers through time and place. To believe in the communion of saints was to recognise the spiritual connection all Christians have with each other through their connection to Christ and the rituals we share. This connection is often found in some of our most important rituals, like baptism, confirmation and holy communion.

On Sunday the 3rd we will mark All Saints day where we remember the many people who have died and yet continue to be connected to us through the communion of saints. We will also celebrate holy communion. While many of the congregation have appreciated or warmed to the changes to how we receive communion some have mourned the loss of the sense of unity that eating and drinking at the same time gave them. A sense of being in communion with each other and the real presence of Christ in that moment of consuming the elements. After discussing these concerns with the Elders we are suggesting a small change to our communion ritual.

Everyone will still be invited to come forward and receive the elements but instead of consuming them on the spot you are invited to take them back to your seats and hold onto them until all have been served and then we can eat and drink together. We hope this will enable a greater sense of communion as we participate in this ancient ritual that has been practiced by our saints for millennia.

Blue Christmas Service
5pm – Sunday the 8th of December

For many, Christmas is a time of joy and celebration as we mark the birth of Christ and spend time with family and friends. In response, our Christmas church services are also celebrations with carols and joy. However, for some, Christmas brings mixed emotions as they mark Christmas without a loved one. A blue Christmas service is for those who wish to mark the hope of Christmas while acknowledging this time of grief and sadness, of feeling blue.

The service includes a time to acknowledge those who have died with candle lighting and will be followed by supper. The service will be streamed so please let family and friends know about it if you feel this is a service that would be meaningful for them.

Christmas Carols Service
7pm – Tuesday the 17th of December

This service will be all about the Christmas story and singing. We have an 8-person choir who will be led by organist Dr Andrew Gardener and conductor Angela Currie. The service will include readings, carols by our choir, and carols for everyone to sing. The service will be followed by supper. This is a wonderful event to invite family and friends along to so please get people to mark it in their diary now.

Andrew and Angela are kindly volunteering their time for the service however we are providing a fee for each of our choristers. We are keen to enable this to be a free event for all who come. If you are able, donations towards the cost of the choir would be appreciated. Please include 'choir' in the description of an electronic donation or you can donate via the church offering on Sunday in a marked envelope.

Thank you for your support.

New Norcia Adventure

It was wonderful to join Father Gareth, Mother Emily, and members of St Nicholas's Anglican Church on a day trip to New Norcia on Tuesday the 29th of October.

Russell and I enjoyed the sights of driving up along the way. While our Anglican friends stopped for coffee and cake at the famous Bindoon Bakery, Russell and I enjoyed leaving a little later and drove straight through. Arriving at New Norcia we were greeted by at least 10 thousand flies and they insisted on keeping us company all day. However, we were soon off on a tour of the buildings and grounds. While many drove by car, Russell and I hitched a lift on the New Norcia buggy; it was a wild ride!

We learned about the monastery and of the six monks who still live in it. We walked through their magnificent church, admired the and coffee at the old catholic boys school, St Ildephonsus.

After lunch we visited the museum and the impressive art collection. The collection includes many European works, a collection of Albert Namatjira works, and many winners of the Mandorla Art Prize. Russell wisely avoided the gift shop but I couldn't help buying a book (Ian would be proud!). We then set off for home.

I look forward to further social opportunities with our Anglican neighbours.
