SUNDAY 13 JULY 2025 - AFTER PENTECOST 5

Ancestral Lines by Jeremy Morgan Worrall

“Ancestral Lines is a visual representation of the lines and ties that follow a generation and the songs that come with it. When I think of the next generation I think towards my Ancestor Lucy Wright, Enoch Wright, Nonie Wright, all the way from my Nanna Audrie to my Mother Vanessa. When I look back at my mob it helps me see towards the future, it gives me hope and strength knowing what my mob have survived through and accomplished amid adversity.

Each person in the painting depicts a series of lines akin to songlines, that represent what they know, who they were and what they have passed on, the first being that of lore (interpretive), hunting, protecting, and tracking, the second of care, weaving, fishing, and love. The third is when we see the two combine into one, and the last two take unfinished elements of them all, to show the passing down of knowledge and care. Above them is the essence of the land they live and protect/care for. It is a depiction of my home the cold skies of Tenterfield with the swirling clouds and giant moon, a place around the fire is where the next Generation find their strength, vision and legacy.”

NAIDOC Week 2025 marks 50 years of honouring Indigenous voices, culture and resilience. The Uniting Church, together with the Uniting Aboriginal and Islander Christian Congress (UAICC), celebrates this milestone and the enduring strength of First Nations peoples.

NAIDOC Week has grown into an annual event of hope, truth-telling, and a powerful declaration that First Nations peoples are leading and dreaming a future where their communities thrive.

This year's theme, "The Next Generation: Strength, Vision & Legacy", celebrates emerging leaders, ancient wisdom and the communities that support and inspire the next generation. It is a call to uplift those who will preserve and carry forward their rich culture.

As we all reflect on the past and look to a future filled with possibility for our First Nations Peoples, we pray that Christ will continue to empower us to walk together on the journey of truth, justice and healing across this land we now call Australia.

Our First Crafting for Others Morning

Our first Crafting for Others Morning was held on Saturday, 28 June 2025.

A lovely group of 13 people enjoyed a social morning while working on their crochet, knitting, felt work and card making. One bird nest was completed for Darling Range Wildlife Centre while many other projects to give to others are underway. Much was achieved and our hard work was rewarded with a delicious morning tea.

Our next Crafting for Others Morning will be held on Saturday, 26 July in the Undercroft when we will be concentrating mostly on making cards for Christmas but you are welcome to bring you own craft project if you wish.

CHURCH NEWS & INFORMATION

National Redress Scheme and Direct Personal Response Fact Sheets

The Uniting Church Australia Redress Ltd has prepared two fact sheets for sharing information about the Scheme and its closing date with congregations, communities, staff and participants so that people are aware of the Scheme and its closing date of 30 June 2027.

The fact sheet is for anyone who has received redress for harm caused by sexual abuse as a child in a Uniting Church Institution (Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational) and has accepted an offer of a Direct Personal Response. The Fact Sheet is to encourage them, when they are ready, to contact UCA Redress Ltd to discuss the next steps in arranging their Direct Personal Response.

The fact sheets are available for collection in the office. For more information, please visit: <https://ucaredress.org.au/>

Your Retiring Offering this week -
Sunday, 13 July
