

NEWS & NOTES

SUNDAY 19 OCTOBER 2025 - AFTER PENTECOST 19

The Importance of Music

Music at All Saints is an important part of the service, giving people time to reflect on the week that was or the week to come.

Within the music are words of comfort and direction.

When feeling desperate:

“Nothing in my hand I bring, simply to thy cross I cling”

(Rock of Ages: Augustus Montague Toplady 1740-1778).

When asking direction:

“Keep thou my feet, I do not ask to see the distant scene –
one step enough for me”.

(Lead Kindly Light: John Henry Newman 1801-90).

When not feeling strong:

“I am weak, but thou art mighty, hold me with thy powerful hand”.

(Guide Me O Thou Great Redeemer: William Williams 1717-91).

There is a sermon in every hymn and spiritual song.

My current earworms of praise songs are:

“The sun comes up, it’s a new day dawning.

It’s time to sing your song again.

Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me.

Let me be singing when the evening comes”.

(Bless The Lord: 10,000 Reasons:

Matt Redman 1974- and Jonas Myria 1982-).

The Importance of Music cont...

“In Christ alone, my hope is found

He is my light, my strength, my song.

This cornerstone, this solid ground

Firm through the fiercest drought and storm”

(In Christ Alone: Keith Getty 1974- and Stuart Townend 1963-).

If you are feeling down, sing something praising or pleading with God. You never know, the answer to your current concern may be within one of the hymns or spiritual songs we sing on Sunday.

Important Notice on behalf of the Synod Standing Committee

At a special meeting held last Thursday, the Synod Standing Committee gave priority attention to the imminent change in the position of General Secretary.

With the conclusion of Rev Dr Andrew Williams in the role on 31 October, regulations give the Synod Standing Committee responsibility to appoint a person to the vacancy to fulfil constitutional requirements.

The Synod Standing Committee determined to appoint David Beards as General Secretary for the period 1 to 30 November 2025. David will serve in this role as a temporary appointment.

The Synod Standing Committee is in final stages of a proposal regarding the longer term appointment to the position of General Secretary after 1 December 2025, and will consider the proposal at the Standing Committee's ordinary meeting on 20 October 2025.

Your prayers are welcomed.

Rev Dr Ian Tozer

Do You Have a Spare Hot Water Urn?

Our church is looking for another hot water urn after the last one sprang a leak. Before we buy one, I thought I would ask if anyone has one that they don't need any more.

It would be a much appreciated donation.
